

ASSOCIATE COUNSEL

POSITION SUMMARY

Serves as the deputy legal officer for the organization. Performs professional legal work in support of the organization's legal matters; researches and analyzes issues of concern to the organization; drafts and implements contracts; prepares and files briefs, motions, and other pleadings in litigation matters; represents the organization in the litigation of water rights and other matters; helps advise the Board and organization's staff in areas of water law, contracts, real property, employment issues, and environmental regulation; participates in the negotiation of litigation settlements, contracts, and other matters; advises management about legal issues affecting the organization's governance and its substantive initiatives and positions. May work directly with board members on assigned issues and legal matters. Reports to the organization's General Counsel.

TYPICAL BACKGROUND / EXPERIENCE / REQUIREMENTS

Licensed attorney with 4 or more years' experience with emphasis in civil litigation, governmental law, water law and/or environmental law. Possesses working knowledge of contract principles and litigation procedures and rules. Ability to work with: organization's directors, staff and consultants; policy, legal, and technical representatives of public and private entities; and judges and judicial staff. Travel required. Colorado Bar Admission required.

Competitive compensation and excellent benefits offered. Please provide resume, references, and recent writing sample to Laura Hines, Business Manager, CRWCD, P.O. Box 1120, Glenwood Springs, CO 81602 as soon as possible. No phone calls please.